EXHIBITIONS & FREE ACTIVITIES AT THE WASATCH COUNTY LIBRARY!

- Crossroads: Change in Rural America is a traveling Smithsonian exhibition that provokes fresh thinking and sparks conversations about the future and sustainability of rural communities. At a time when much of rural Utah is reinventing itself, Crossroads offers a chance to look at our paths over the past century – to highlight the changes that affected our fortunes, explore how we’ve adapted, and think about what’s next.
- Celebrating Our Homegrown Heritage: Past, Present & Future is a local companion exhibit to the Crossroads exhibition that focuses on the unique culture of Wasatch County! Created by a team of Wasatch High School students and locals, this exhibit showcases the history of Wasatch, modern life, as well as interviews with members of the community.

NOVEMBER 4, 2023
11:00am-12:00pm

Crossroads Exhibition Grand Opening & Ribbon-Cutting

Utah Historical Society Drop-In Scan & Share Activity

Want to preserve and share your history? Experts from the Utah Historical Society will help Wasatch County seniors, adults, and young adults preserve and share their photos, letters, recipes, and other historical materials that represent their heritage. Participants will learn about their items, how to preserve them, and create digital copies that will become part of The Peoples of Utah Revisited online collection.
